Future in the making

Your trusted two-stroke
propulsion partner

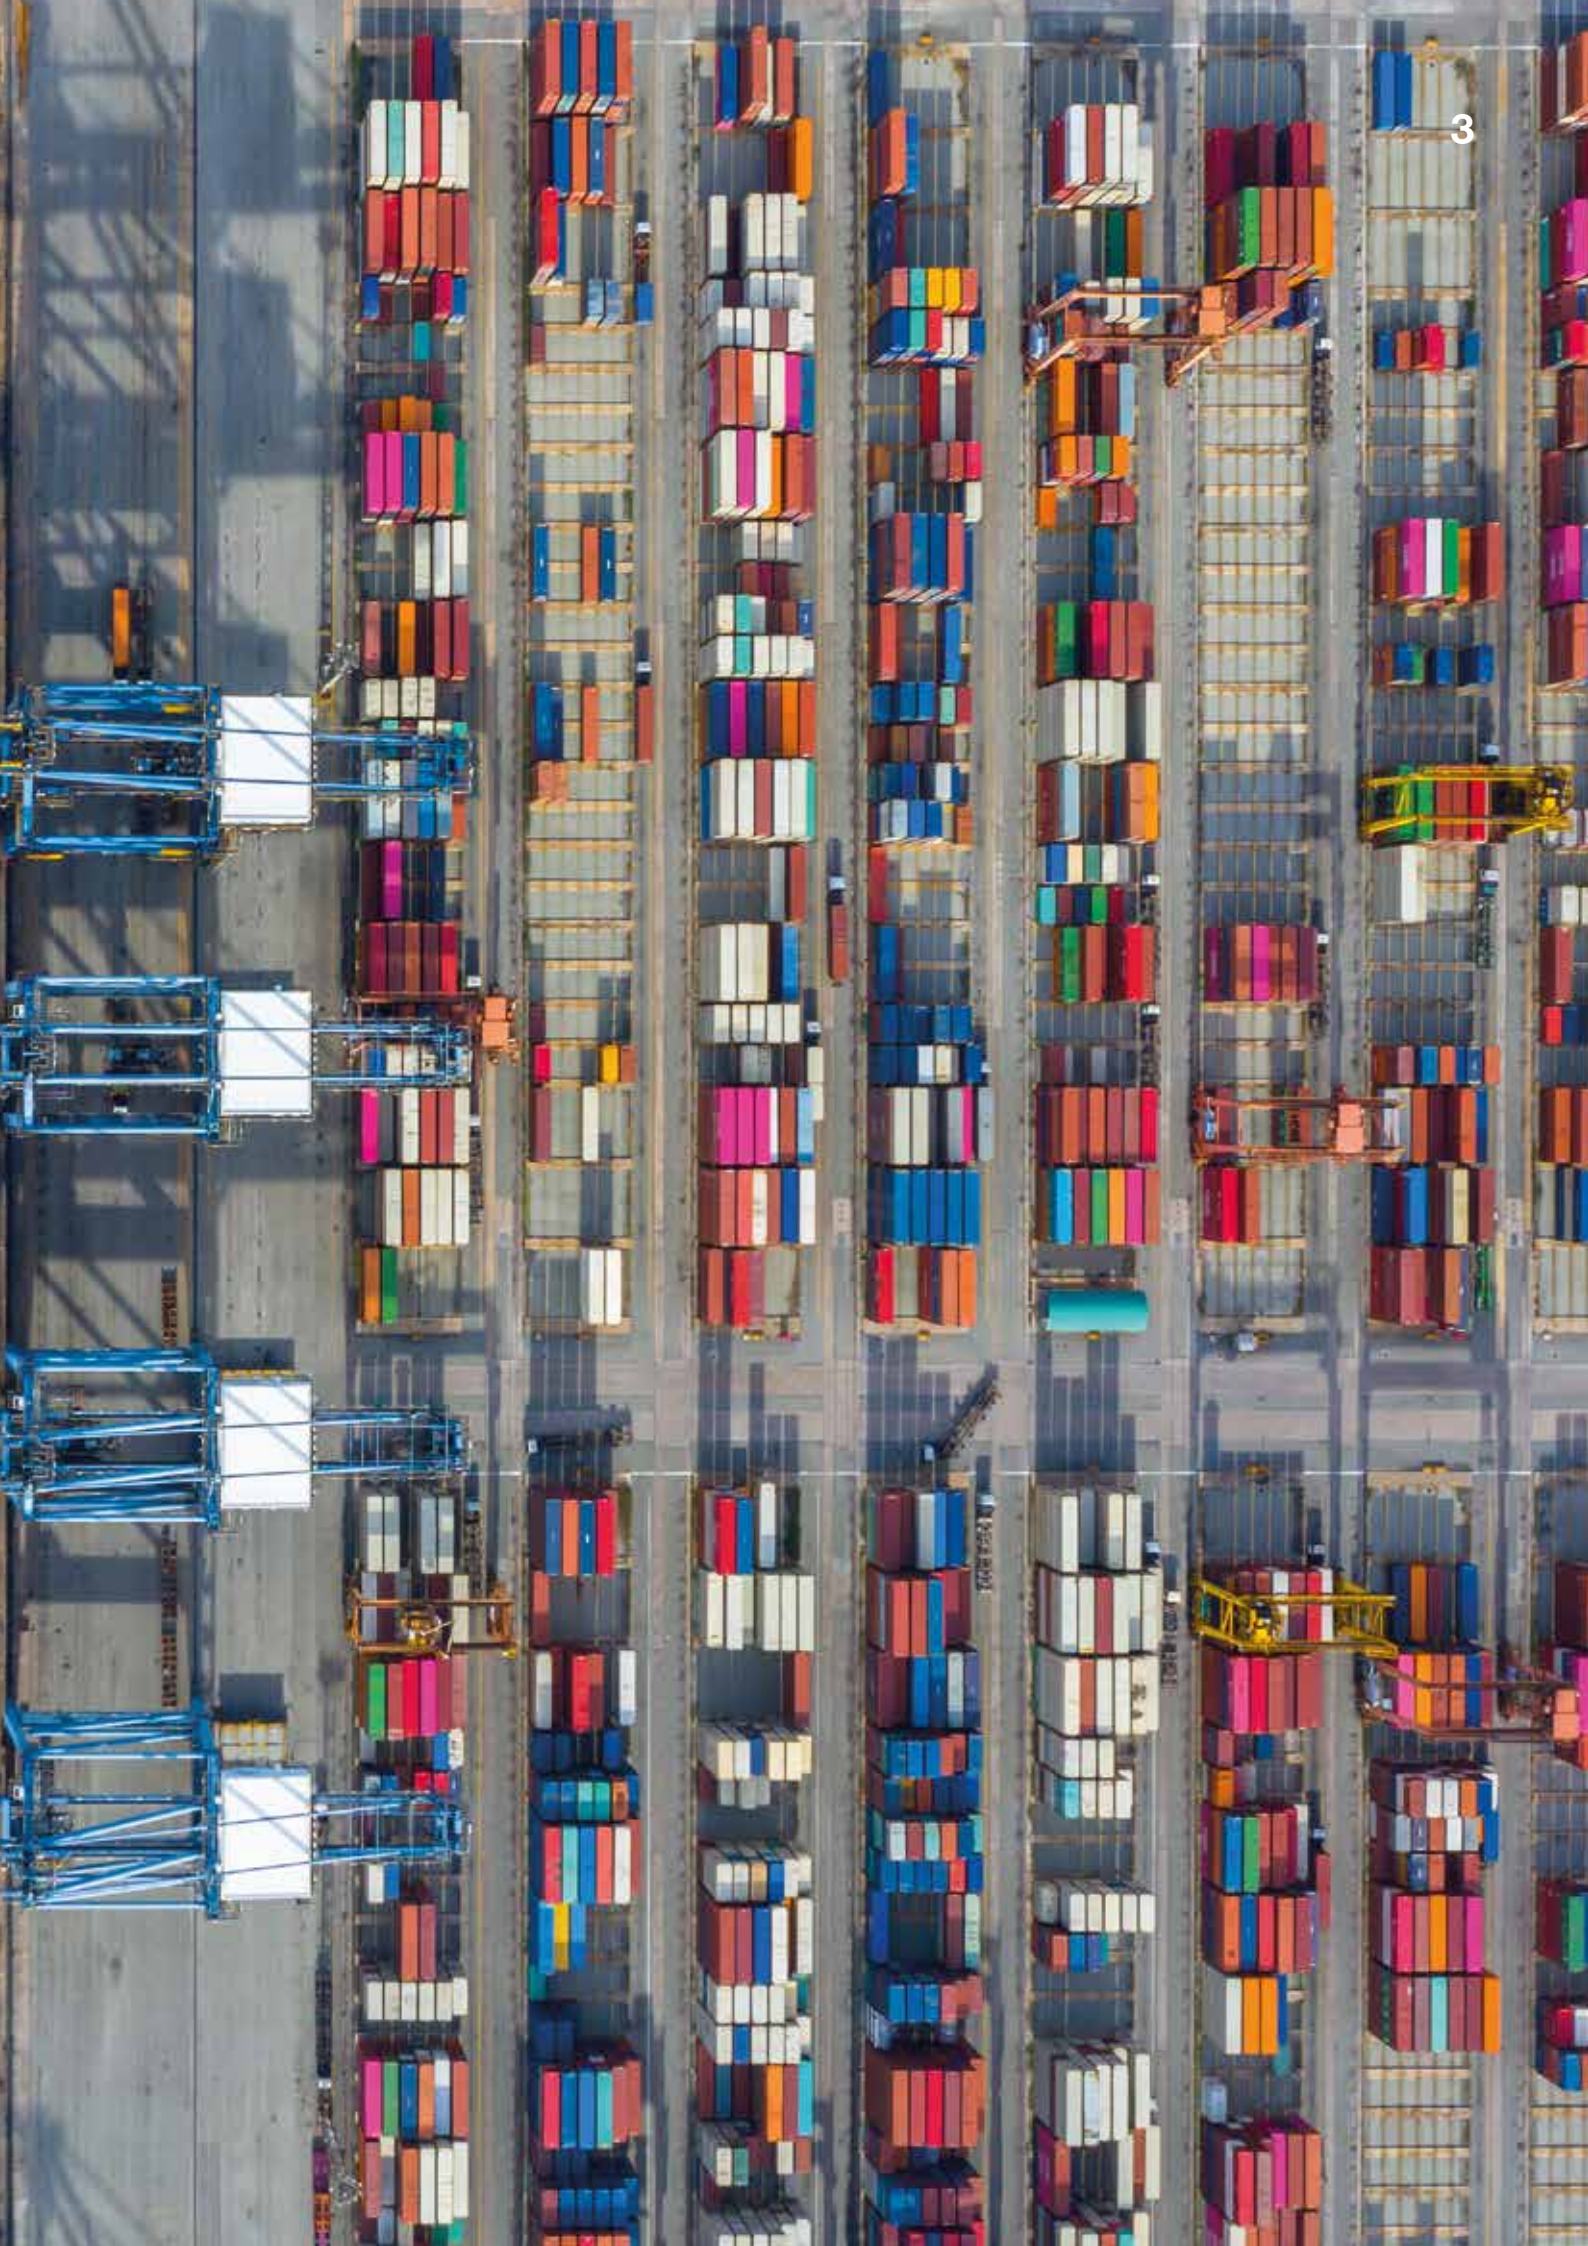

Future in the making

MAN Energy Solutions is the world's leading provider of large-bore marine engines and integrated propulsion systems for today's and future shipbuilding. We make two- and four-stroke engines, turbochargers, propellers, control systems and auxiliary equipment for dual fuel operation and TIER III compliance.

Our marine systems expertise is focused on high quality products, emission reduction, alternative fuels, complete propulsion packages, digitized services and 24/7 global service.

By signing up with MAN Direct Sales, you get more than a first class equipment supplier, you get a reliable and experienced contract partner who will mitigate the risks and manage the complexity of your next two-stroke new building project. Direct Sales acts as your single point of contact through all essential phases of your new building project taking direct responsibility as your end-to-end marine system supplier.

Simplify your new build process

MAN Direct Sales serves as a reliable contract partner to both ship owners and shipyards, allowing you to safely anchor the complexity of your two-stroke propulsion system through all major steps of the vessel design and construction phase. We take responsibility for ensuring that your new building visions succeed.

By including our professional team as an active contract partner, you are in safe hands. You get direct access to our globally rooted expertise and guidance while we at the same time simplify and expedite your needs and by fulfilling our highest standards.

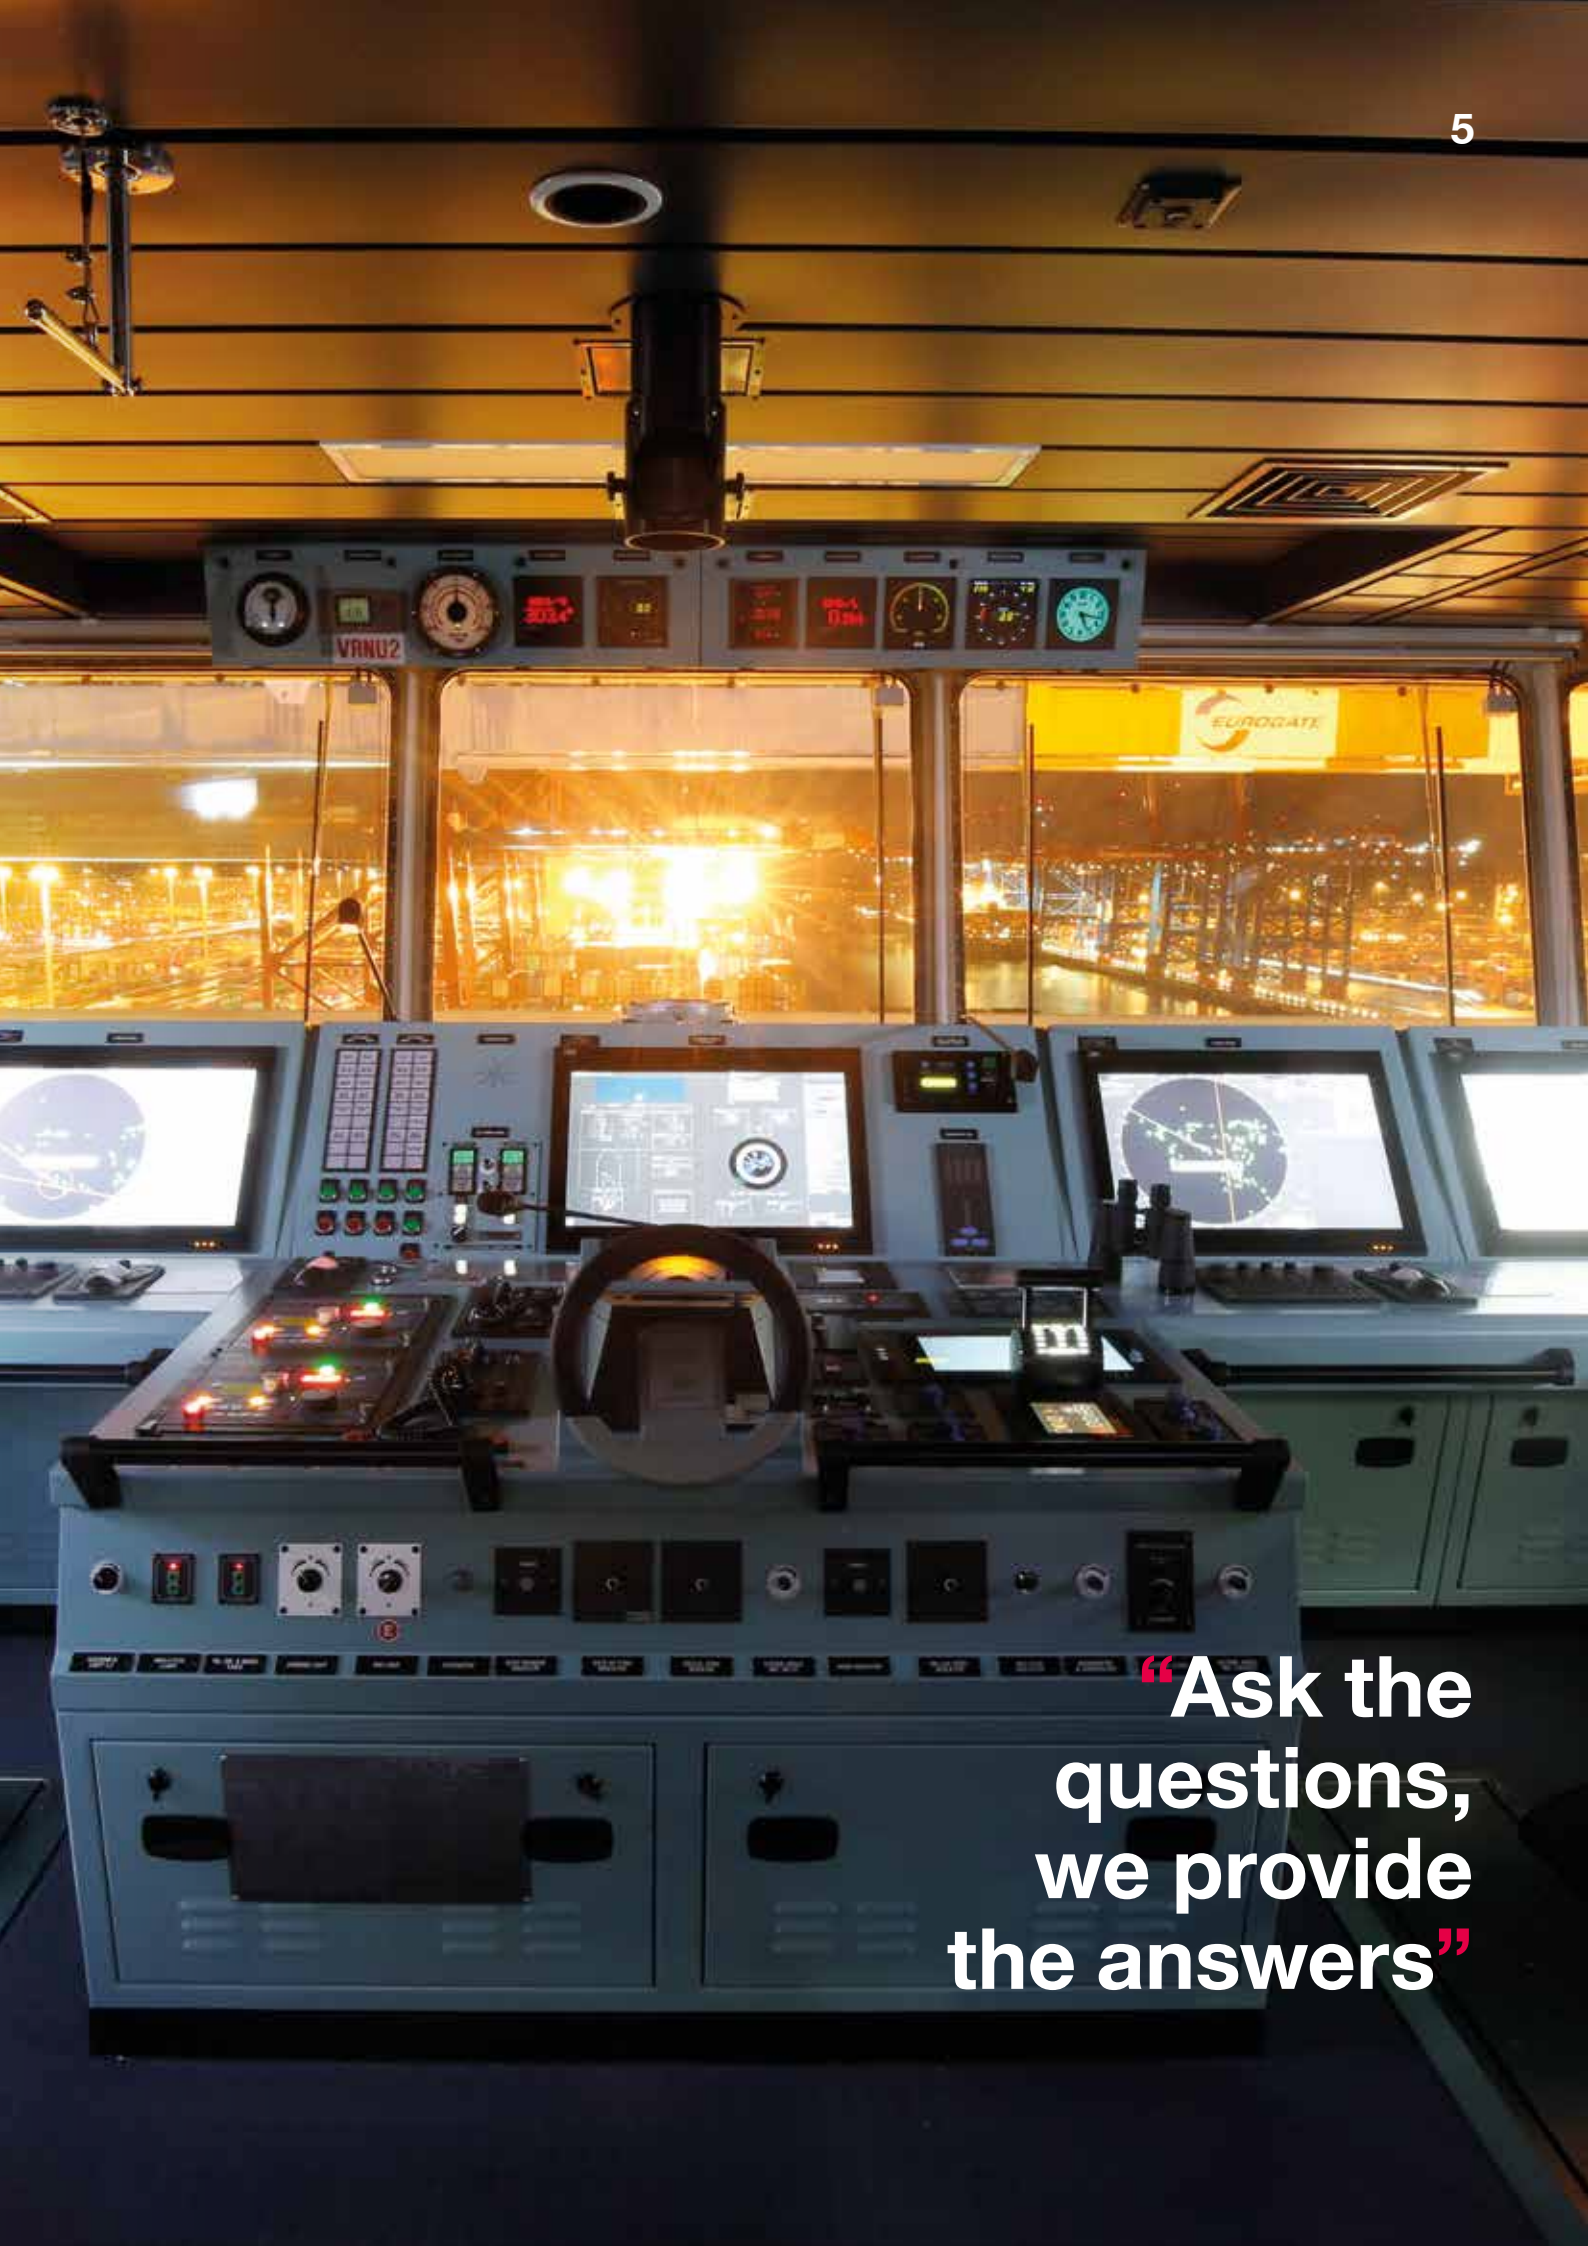

Through MAN Direct Sales, you will get complete equipment sourcing and matching technical interfaces, along with documentation and on-site commissioning of your entire propulsion system. All backed up with a guarantee of on-time delivery.
